

Forest Education Grants

The Idaho Forest Products Commission is pleased to offer Forest Education Grants to educate Idaho youth. We invite proposals for projects that help youth learn more about Idaho's trees, forests and forest products. Special consideration will be given to projects that get youth out in a forest; in contact with a logger, forester or other natural resource worker; or into a facility that grows trees, or processes or uses wood products (e.g. sawmill, paper mill, furniture maker, building site, lumberyard, box maker, etc.).

WHAT: Grants of up to $250 to support forest-related education of Idaho's youth.

WHO: Teachers and others who work with youth in Idaho.

HOW: Apply at www.idahoforests.org/special1.htm. Use the easy online form, or download a form to complete and mail.

WHEN: Applications accepted year-round. Applications received by May 15 will be considered for June 1-May 31 projects. All applicants will be notified of decisions by May 31.
