

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

JOBS IN IDAHO'S FOREST AND MILLING OPERATIONS

The list below highlights examples of forest operations and milling jobs available to high school graduates and those who advance from entry-level jobs to jobs demanding increasing responsibility, skills and experiences.

Logging and Forestry Crews

Timber Faller
Tree Planter
Choker Setter
Rigging Slinger
Tree Thinner
Firefighter
Fire Engine Assistant

Heavy Equipment Operator

Skidder Operator
Dozer Operator
Feller-Buncher Operator
Log Loader Operator
Processor Operator
Yarder Operator
Rock Crusher Operator
Excavator Operator
Track-Hoe Operator

Forestry Technician

Timber Cruiser & Marker
Log Buyer/Appraiser
Engineering Technician
Biology/Hydrology Technician
Survey Technician
Road Construction Specialist
Fuels Technician
Fire/Security Watch

Transportation

Log Truck Driver
Self-Loader Driver
Dump Truck Driver
Semi Trailer Driver
Lowboy Driver
Rail Engineer
Tug Crewperson
Helicopter Pilot

Equipment Mechanics

Heavy Equipment Mechanic
Diesel Truck Mechanic
Saw Shop/Motor Mechanic
Field Service Mechanic
Aviation Mechanic

Management/Supervision

Crew Boss
Hooktender
Reload/Log Yard Manager
Project Foreman
Road Manager
Production/Shift Supervisor
Maintenance or Transportation Manager

Maintenance

Saw Filer
Maintenance Technician
Millwright
Electrician

Product Finishing

Boiler/Dry Kiln Assistant
Bin Attendant
Grader
Planer Operator
Stacker Operator

Production Centers

Debarker Operator
Chipper Operator
Sawyer
Canter Operator
Edger Operator
Chain Puller
Rough Stacker Operator
Gang Saw/Sorter Operator
Edger/Optimizer Operator
Press Operator

Mill Yard

Shipping Attendant
Forklift Operator
Loader Operator
Truck/Railcar Loader
Log Scaler
Yard Crew

For more information on career pathways, profiles and opportunities, visit the Oregon Forest Resources Institutes Careers in Oregon's forest Section Volume 2: Options for High School Graduates at http://www.oregonforests.org/media/pdf/Careers_2.pdf

JOBS &
careers