

2014 AIA Idaho Honor Awards

Every other year, the Idaho Chapter of the American Institute of Architects, encourages the 280 members of the four sections: Eastern, Northern, Central and Mountain to submit recently built projects for consideration. This year the call was issued in April and the selections were presented September 19, 2014, Boise, ID to a full house of about 120 in attendance at a Gala evening event in the Idaho Room on the 17th floor of the Zions Bank Building, 8th and Main that featured food from Angells, drinks from the Piper Pub, live music by John Laufenburger and friends from the Hi-Tops.

Current AIA Idaho president, Jerry Myers, AIA introduced the Jury:

James Richärd, AIA, Richärd + Bauer, Phoenix, AZ , foreman

Phillip Mead, AIA, Associate Professor, University of Idaho College of Art, Architecture & Interior Design

Tom Zabala, AIA, ZGA Architects & Planners Chartered (retired)

Mike Boeck, Commissioner, Idaho Forest Product Commission (Best use of Idaho Wood)

The Jury then presented those projects they selected from the 36 entries received in seven different categories:
